

Re: Frontend backend problem

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Access/microsoft.public.access.developers.toolkitode/2004-10/0047.html>

---

From: Brendan Reynolds (brenreyn)

Date: 10/27/04

Date: Wed, 27 Oct 2004 15:41:24 +0100

I would need to see the code before I could offer any suggestion.

--

Brendan Reynolds (MVP)

<http://brenreyn.blogspot.com>

The spammers and script-kiddies have succeeded in making it impossible for me to use a real e-mail address in public newsgroups. E-mail replies to this post will be deleted without being read. Any e-mail claiming to be from brenreyn at indigo dot ie that is not digitally signed by me with a GlobalSign digital certificate is a forgery and should be deleted without being read. Follow-up questions should in general be posted to the newsgroup, but if you have a good reason to send me e-mail, you'll find a useable e-mail address at the URL above.

"don at gypsy" <donatgypsy@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:9ABD7CD4-6F5D-45BA-9D82-846AA3448D7B@microsoft.com...

> Yes, I was trying to go to the table linker. Thank you, that answered one > of > my problems. The other problem is that when the db opens an unbound form > comes up. I can input data but when I press the OK button I created to > use

> this data along with in table info to produce the report it will not work.

> Any more suggestions. I am in over my head and can not help but think > that I > am missing something very basic. Thanks again

>

> "don at gypsy" wrote:

>

>> I have 2002 access and the developer packager. When I run the frontend >> db

>> application I have created through the packager and then run the packaged >> application on a pc that has access installed, everything works ok, but >> when

>> I install the frontend and backend on a pc that does not have access,

>> the

>> frontend can not find the backend -- the forms etc. in the frontend all >> display properly. The backend consists of only tables, which I have >> installed in the properly named folders and files. If I do not split

>> the

>> database, the packaged version works find on a pc without Access install.

>> I get the following errors (split db) when I try to open the macro that >> opens the table linker or the macro that runs the queries. The >> expression

>> may not result in the name of a macro, the name of a user-defined >> function,

>> or [Event Procedure],

microsoft.public.access.developers.toolkitode: Re: Frontend backend problem

```
>> *There may have been an error evaluating the function, event, or macro >> Another error message I get when I press a button is DEPOSITS can't find
>> the >> wizard, or the wizard has not been installed, or there is a syntax error >> in >> the Declarations section of a Visual Basic module. Sometimes I get >> Runtime
>> error 75 message
>> Thanks for any help
```