

Re: FTP receive don't work from unix !!!

---

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/BizTalk/microsoft.public.biztalk.general/2006-01/msg00245.html>

---

- From: "Christian Carnero" <ChristianCarnero@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Tue, 17 Jan 2006 11:28:09 -0800
-

Hi,

Does the BizTalk Server Service user account have RW permissions over the remote FTP ?

If this does not work try using a SSO with an Affiliate Application (Check SSO SDK documentation).

Regards
Christian

"Jari" wrote:

> Hi Craig,
>
> I have checked getting files with command line ftp client with same username > and password.
> And it went well. I could get files from site.
>
> This makes it little bit difficult and intresting.
> Why can't Biztalk Ftp-Adapter read files from site?
>
> Best regards
>
> Jari
>
> "Craig Beuker" wrote:
>
>> "=?Utf-8?B?SmFyaQ==?=" <Jari@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in >> news:D9156074-6C57-4AB5-BB7D-CB59379DC945@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx:
>>
>>> Hi,
>>> I'm trying to get files from unix with ftp-adapter, but it doesn't >>> work. It seems that the ftp-adapter doesn't find the files from >>> folder, even they are there.
>>> I have tied to restart Biztalk Host but it did not help.
>>> The logs shows that in unix environment the LIST command dont find >>> anything.
>>>
>>> Can anyone help me with this problem?

Re: FTP receive don't work from unix !!!

>>>
>>> Here is the adapter log :
>>>
>> <Misc FTP logs deleted>
>>>
>>> Best regards
>>>
>>> Jari
>>
>> What are the permissions on the file/folder on the Unix Server? ie: Does >> the user you are connecting to the FTP Server as have the needed >> permissions to list files in the folder, read files from that folder and >> delete files from that folder. If the user you are connecting to the FTP >> Server as doesn't have the right permissions, this could lead to you not >> being able to see the file.
>>
>> Try this from your windows box:
>> 1) go to the command prompt.
>> 2) type: ftp <unix server>
>> 3) login as the user your adapter is configured to use
>> 4) change to correct directory and look for the files.
>>
>> If you can't see them, then I am guessing it's a permission thing.
>>
>> Note: I am by no means a Unix expert but going from what issues I've >> encountered, that would be the first place I would check.
>>
>> cmb..
>>
.

---

• References:

- ◆ FTP receive don't work from unix !!!
    ◇ From: Jari
- ◆ Re: FTP receive don't work from unix !!!
    ◇ From: Craig Beuker

- Prev by Date: Re: Business Rules Engine Frustration
- Next by Date: BAM DirectEventStream or BufferedEventStream error
- Previous by thread: Re: FTP receive don't work from unix !!!
- Next by thread: Re: FTP receive don't work from unix !!!
- Index(es):
  - ◆ Date
  - ◆ Thread