"what grade"? Like, you mean, a B- or a C+? As far as I'm aware, all MS exams having a passing mark of 700. Generally considered to be out of approximately 1000, but I don't believe there is such a thing as a perfect score of 1000.

As long as you know the material well, you'll do fine. have you written before? this will almost certainly be the easiest one you'll write.

steve.
