Maybe he is afraid you will learn to much and replace him. When it comes to people being able to learn and improve their skills I never filter. It makes my life better if people put forth the effort to improve their computer skills. I can understand blocking other NNTP server on the internet as they are a serious risk to security do to the content posted in the alt binaries news groups. Hey maybe your admin would be willing to setup a NNTP windows server on site to pull from MS (LOL I doubt that either). Well I am sorry to hear that you are stuck with the web interface but at least it is there.
