I'm sorry for my request.
As PA said, I am urgent to review the code.

Also, do you remember that it was possible to download DDK in MS website some years ago?

Ok, I will buy DDK right now.

Thank for your comment..

You go online and get yourself an MSDN subscription at the right level and download the ddk. You can have the ddk, depending on your bandwidth and the quality of your credit, within a few hours.
