Can you make a required field validator optional? I know it sounds crazy, but....

Let's say I have a signup form. It consists of 2 sections. The top section is a "GOLD MEMBER" section. It has required validators for name, address, etc... The next section is the "BRONZE MEMBER" section. It also has required validators for the same fields. The user only has to fill out 1 set of info.

Any thoughts on how to accomplish this?

Thanks!
