

Re: Client Information

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/DotNet/microsoft.public.dotnet.framework.webservices/2007-11/msg00003.htm>

- From: "John Saunders [MVP]" <john.saunders at trizetto.com>
 - Date: Sat, 3 Nov 2007 16:42:25 -0400
-

"Scott Elgram" <SElgram@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message
news:%23\$GsojmGIHA.284@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

Hello,

I have a webservice designed in VS 2005 using C#. I would like to know the URL and the IP addresses of the people who are accessing my service.

Is this a possibility? if so how?

What do you mean, "URL"? What do you mean, "people"? People don't have URLs, and URLs don't access web services. Please give us more detail.

John Saunders | MVP – Windows Server System – Connected System Developer