I don't think I've ever seen a reference to Lawrence Welk in a C# newsgroup before. :)

Isn't the "So long, farewell, auf Wiedersehen, goodbye" from "Sound of Music" though?

Good luck with the new job.

After 23 years as an independent programmer (most of them with Turbo Pascal, Delphi, and C#) I'm taking a full-time job, doing straight C on embedded Linux. I start a week from Monday (Jan 22) and will probably stop monitoring the .NET newsgroups, as I'll have to find time for a two hour round trip commute.

I'll probably kill the business phone, but I'll keep the midnightbeach web site and all its content. I bought Internic's longest term last time my domain came up for renewal, so the midnightbeach email address will be valid for a good long time, and perhaps forever – I'll always be happy to hear from readers, though my response time will suffer.

Man, if you're using the Lawrence Welk sign-off, you must be almost as old as I am. :-)

Good luck in your new job.
