

Re: crystal reports unreleased connections

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/DotNet/microsoft.public.dotnet.languages.vb/2004-10/5656.html>

---

From: Peter Proost (pproost_at_nospam.hotmail.com)

Date: 10/25/04

Date: Mon, 25 Oct 2004 14:17:42 +0200

Hi Bernie,

sorry I haven't replied earlier to your post but it didn't show up in my news reader and it still doesn't but I saw it on google. I know I've got the sleeping connections because they show up in the sql server enterprise manager

greetz Peter

"Peter Proost" <pproost@nospam.hotmail.com> wrote in message news:#izb0kAuEHA.2000@TK2MSFTNGP14.phx.gbl...

> Hi Group,

>

> I've got an interesting problem, I don't know if this is the right group but > I think so because everything I've read about it so far says it's a .net > problem. Here's the problem, we're using crystal reports 9 and vb.net and > we're using the crystalreportViewer to show our reports. But every time we > open a report the connection to or sql server remains, so if I open 5

forms

> with the report viewer I've got 5 sleeping connections in my sql server.

If

> I close all 5 forms I still got 5 open connections, and they will not go > away until I close the entire application. The problem with this is that > some user only use the app to print reports so after about an hour or so > they've got 80 sleeping connections. I've tried putting > crystalreportviewer1.dispose in the form closing event but this has no > effect. The crviewer also hasn't got a connection.close method or something > like that

> Any help would be very much appreciated

>

> Grtz Peter

>

>