

Formating Font in a Formuls

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Excel/microsoft.public.excel.newusers/2005-12/msg00208.html>

- From: Silvanus <Silvanus.1zs13m_1134138303.6254@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Fri, 9 Dec 2005 08:24:44 -0600
-

Greetings all hopefully this is a simple question.

In an IF function I would like to have the value that is returned when True to be one color (green) and the value returned for False to be a different color (red). I would also like both to be bold.

Is that possible?:confused: If so how do I code that into the formula.

Thanks!

--

Silvanus

Silvanus's Profile: <http://www.excelforum.com/member.php?action=getinfo&userid=29515>

View this thread: <http://www.excelforum.com/showthread.php?threadid=492161>

.

• Follow-Ups:

- ◆ Re: Formating Font in a Formula
 ◇ From: Silvanus
- ◆ Re: Formating Font in a Formula
 ◇ From: Ron Coderre
- ◆ Re: Formating Font in a Formuls
 ◇ From: Niek Otten

- Prev by Date: Re: Excedl 2003 / How to automize file opening
- Next by Date: Re: Help please,what is wrong with this formula?
- Previous by thread: Re: Excedl 2003 / How to automize file opening
- Next by thread: Re: Formating Font in a Formuls
- Index(es):
 - ◆ Date

◆ Thread