

Re: Can use arrows after App.InputBox

---

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Excel/microsoft.public.excel.programming/2005-06/msg04140.html>

---

- From: "Steph" <verysmallrox@xxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Mon, 13 Jun 2005 17:19:22 -0400
-

Never mind. Focus issue. Sheet1.Select did it. Thanks anyway!

"Steph" <verysmallrox@xxxxxxxx> wrote in message
news:uZ9N6wFcFHA.2128@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

> Hi everyone. When I execute the code below, it prompts an Input box for > data entry. If I hit cancel or if I enter data into the inputbox, the arrow

> keys on my keyboard no longer work. If I click on a different sheet, then > back to this one, it now works! Any idea why? Thanks.

>

>

> Sub Overwrite()

> Dim userid As Variant

>

> If ActiveCell.Column <> 5 Or ActiveCell.Row < 5 Then

> MsgBox ("Active Cell must be on the User ID you wish to change")

> Else

> userid = Application.InputBox("New User ID")

> If userid = False Then

> Exit Sub

> Else

> 'Unprotect HR DB

> Data.Unprotect Password

> ActiveCell.Value = userid

> 'Protect HR DB

> Data.Unprotect Password

> Data.Protect Password, True, True, True, True

> End If

> End If

> End Sub

>

>

.

---

Re: Can use arrows after App.InputBox

- References:

- ◆ Can use arrows after App.InputBox

- ◆ From: Steph

- Prev by Date: maximum as to the csv data that can be downloaded in to Excel

- Next by Date: Copy data from one workbook to another

- Previous by thread: Can use arrows after App.InputBox

- Next by thread: time-stamping macro

- Index(es):

- ◆ Date

- ◆ Thread