

Re: Font coloring function

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Excel/microsoft.public.excel.worksheet.functions/2004-04/0534.html>

---

From: Jason Morin (jason.morin\_at\_us.exel.com)

Date: 04/01/04

Date: Thu, 1 Apr 2004 09:36:32 -0800

One way is via custom formatting. Select the cell, press Ctrl+1, Number Tab, click Custom, and key in:

General;[Red]-General;0;@

For more info on custom number formatting, check out:

Custom Number Formatting in Microsoft Excel:

<http://support.microsoft.com/default.aspx?scid=/support/excel/content/formats/default.asp>

HTH

Jason

Atlanta, GA

>-----Original Message-----

>I'm looking for a way to change the font color of a number.

>

>something like this;

>

>=IF(A1<=0,"font color RED",A1) but I know that's not how >you do it, can anyone help?

>

>thx

>.

>