

Public Folder access

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Exchange/microsoft.public.exchange.admin/2004-03/1004.html>

From: Mark Arnold [MVP] (mark_at_mvps.org)

Date: 03/05/04

Date: Fri, 5 Mar 2004 06:39:03 -0800

A problem with PF permissions here is the lack of granularity and the ability to append rather than overwrite. You would need to use some 3rd party tools to add the permission with granlarity. Aelita and I think NetIQ have such tools.

>-----Original Message-----

> How can i change it so an account i'm using for exchsync has owner priveleges on the All Public Folders root on Exchange 5.5?

>

> Many thanks,

>

> Phill H.

>.

>