

Re: Page can not be displayed OWA

---

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Exchange/microsoft.public.exchange.admin/2005-08/msg01646.html>

---

- From: "Matjaz Gonza" <gonza@xxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Fri, 12 Aug 2005 13:26:34 +0200
-

Did you check "This is a front-end server" option on properties of FE server (through ESM)? I do not know why would IE display name of BE server???

--

Hope this helps a bit

Regards Matjaz

"TKE402" <TKE402@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message news:F54E5E18-CD9F-4EEB-B028-75BC4552CB13@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

> Hello,

>

> I just installed a Front end Exchange 2003 box. I also have two Exchange > 2003 back end boxes. I followed the instructions to create my own > certificate > authority and install the certificate on the front end server. I also > enabled > forms based authentication requiring SSL. The port 443 is open on the > firewall to the front end exchange and well as 80. When I type the address > from outside the building (using https or http) a log on screen comes up.

> I

> log on with my credentials using domain\username. On the bottom left of > the > web browser I see it points to the correct back end server in which my > mailbox is hosted. Then I receive a page can not be displayed "Cannot find > server or DNS error Internet Explorer".

>

> Any suggestions on how to fix this?

>

> Thanks,
> TKE402

.

---

Re: Page can not be displayed OWA

- Follow-Ups:

- ◆ Re: Page can not be displayed OWA

- ◆ From: tke402

- References:

- ◆ Page can not be displayed OWA

- ◆ From: TKE402

- Prev by Date: Re: Unable to deliver email to outside domain like hotmail, yahoo, gma

- Next by Date: Re: Warning Message by Exchange System Attendant

- Previous by thread: Page can not be displayed OWA

- Next by thread: Re: Page can not be displayed OWA

- Index(es):

- ◆ Date

- ◆ Thread