

Re: OWA unable to open attachments

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Exchange/microsoft.public.exchange.setup/2005-01/0545.html>

---

From: Pablo Vernocchi (vernocchi\_at\_nospam.redusers.com)

Date: 01/13/05

Date: Thu, 13 Jan 2005 15:33:01 -0300

Do you have logging activated?
If not, you should...

<anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> escribió en el mensaje news:254101c4f972$49ffdef0$a501280a@phx.gbl...

This was not a upgrade from a 2000 box so I did not run lockdown or urlscan. SUS is not install on this server.

>-----Original Message-----

>Did you install IIS Lockdown tool? URLScan? SUS Server?

>

>--

>Saludos,

>-----

>Pablo Vernocchi

>vernocchi@nospam.redusers.com

>Buenos Aires, Argentina

>"Craig" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> escribió en el mensaje

>news:242901c4f8b9$b82de430$a301280a@phx.gbl...

>> Have a Exchange 2003 with sp1 server that will not allow >> OWA clients to open document type posts. By that i mean >> posts other than straight text. They can open them with >> the Outlook client just not OWA.

>> I get a HTTP 403 error when someone tries to open a >> document on through OWA. Have a second E2k server that >> works but cannot find the IIS setting that would fix >> this.

>> This is not a client permission problem no access from

>> Owner to Reader will work on opening Word, PDF or other >> documents posted to public folders.

>>

>> Any Ideas?

>>

>> Craig

>

>

>

>