Microsoft has several that you may be able to adapt...like maybe a real estate template. I think most of them are free..if you follow the links through MS site.

Take a look at the Contoso real estate one.

Or do a Google for Frontpage Templates...there's zillions of them.

Need to rebuild from scratch the website I built | using Publisher which I learned later was a mistake. All of a sudden | Publisher hrefs are wrong ( i.e. the paths for a previewed site as opposed to | `index_files/<filenames>` )and MS say it is due to the content of the site.
