i have created a web page using frontpage 2002 on my xp home system i have directed the image links to the folder ie:

<td class="logoname" bgcolor="#FFFFFF" width="343" background="images/statuelogo.jpg"> </td>
```

it works fine offline but once i uploaded it the pictures wont load i just get a small white box with a red x in it. ive contacted the server but they dont know whats wrong. can anyone here please help me ?????

kris
