

RE: no internet on server

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/ISA/microsoft.public.isa.clients/2004-11/0023.html>

From: Mazin Al-haidery (MazinAlhaidery_at_discussions.microsoft.com)

Date: 11/10/04

Date: Tue, 9 Nov 2004 21:44:01 -0800

Hi

I think the problem is that you enabled the "Packet Filtering" , which prevent the server from accessing the internet for security reason so you have to uncheck the packet filtering to solve this problem

"Nuno Alex" wrote:

> Hi,

>

> You must create a Protocol Rule based on the server IP address (Client Address Set).

>

> Regards

>

> "shareef" wrote:

>

>> we are using windows 2003 server and using isdn dialup connection for internet and we are using isa 2000 for proxy and isa client is configured in all the clients places but the problem is we are not able to get internet on server other wise everthing is working perfectly alright. i am sure i am missing some setting during configuration. please help me in this regard.

>> Thanks