

Re: NSLOOKUP & PING to external targhet NOT working

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/ISA/microsoft.public.isa/2004-09/0086.html>

From: Bruno GUERPILLON (spam_at_gerpion.com)

Date: 09/06/04

Date: Mon, 6 Sep 2004 17:03:20 +0200

Jo wrote:

- > Hy!
- > i have this problem.
- > NSLOOKUP to external targhet is not working
- > PING to external target only works from the isa box and not the
- > clients -----
- > i have 2 dc with dns (win2003srv) with the right forwarders pointing
- > to out ISP DNS
- > i have 1 isa server box (isa2004) win2003srv not dc
- > i can ping only form isabox and i can't nslookup to external source
- > from internal client unless is pecity the isp dns server as second
- > parameter. my internal dns seems not to be able to find sources.
- > my dns are configured to use forwarders.
- > i have a firewall policy to permit dns and icmp and ping from internal
- > network to external.
- > in the logging when i ping or nslookup to external source i see the
- > requests, they are allowed by the rules i created. but the result is
- > connection denied.
- > what can be the cause? and the solution?
- > thank U

Hi Jo

Concerning PING, an access rule granting Ping from internal to external should fit (that's what i'm doing usually).

Concerning NSLOOKUP, if the target domain doesnt have a reverse zone, nslookup would not run correctly (if not at all).

--

Cordialement,
Bruno GUERPILLON
<http://isa.gerpion.com>