

Re: Copying from CD to Media Library

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Media/microsoft.public.windowsmedia/2004-12/0616.html>

---

From: Mike Williams [MVP] (mikew\_at\_Nospam.mvps.org)

Date: 12/30/04

Date: Thu, 30 Dec 2004 11:52:17 +1100

To: UJazz <UJazz@discussions.microsoft.com>

UJazz wrote:

> Hi,

>

> I'm a basic user of WM9 and have encountered the following problem:

>

> When I click to copy a track from a CD to the Library, the track starts > playing as well as copying. I didn't think much of it till I realised that > once it was in the Library and playing, the track was very distorted, as if > too much gain or volume too high.

>

> After comparing settings with another computer and following the same > procedure I noticed one difference: one computer plays the track WHILE > copying it (creating a distorted track), and the other computer doesn't.

>

> How can I stop this from happening?

Click the stop button.