Ok, i see where it is that you want me to go. Im a bit confused as to exactly what im doing after the profiles part. Could you walk me through it a bit more specifically? Am i creating a brand new email account? i hope not, am i going to lose anything that i currently have on my Outlook 2003 like contacts, recent received mail, etc?

Also, i apologize for the multi - posting, if you could explain how i will delete the other posts.

Thanks
