Hi Customer Service asked me to email for tech support. I have a brand new computer (NIIICCEE, LOL) with MS XP home edition. I am trying to download my old ms office 97 disk and it is saying that the cd key is not the right number and customer service is telling me this is an obsolete product. I wanted to load "word" and "excel" so I can download my old docs from the old computer. Can you help??? I never had any trouble before downloading this CD before. Thanks!
