Perhaps your "purchased at retail" ID has now been identified by microsoft as a pirated key and will not install? I don't know. Contact the person from whom you bought the program - I presume it is a genuine holographed CD? If not, you will get no further assistance from this forum.

|||| After furious head scratching, funny-guy asked:

||||

|||| hi ppl

|||| im new on dis forum and was directed to this section as u r da

|||| experts in da field

||||

|||| Im trying to install office 2007 on my vista ultimate, and i get a

|||| message when the installation goes up to about over half,

||||

|||| with the following message

||||

|||| " setup cannot find enterprise.wv\Enterww.cab. Browse to a valid

|||| installation source, and then click ok."

||||

||||

|||| and when i obviously select the source which is the cv/dvd source,

|||| the same message comes up again.

||||

||||

||||

|||| ive read on the internet that some have tried to download the cd

|||| to there hard-drive and it worked ( so maybe how do i do that?)

|||| and some have done it and it still didnt work ( so what would i

|||| do)

||||

||||

||||

|||| ive also heard of some mysterious missing file, which is

|||| confusing,

||||

|||| so please let me know the best way for me to get this to work, ive

|||| been tryin for ages.....

||||

|||| my pc spec are as follows

||||

||||

||||

|||| intel dual core (total 6GHz)

||||

|||| with over 200Gb hard drive

||||

|||| and 2GB ram

||||

|||| installed vista ultimate genuine

|||| and office 07 genuine
