

Re: mpg3 won't play

---

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Office/microsoft.public.powerpoint/2005-10/msg00815.html>

---

- From: "Troy @ TLC Creative" <troy at tlc creative dot com>
  - Date: Sun, 23 Oct 2005 20:15:25 -0700
-

Do the audio file play in other applications? Are they located in the same folder as the presentation (if not this is most likely your problem – corrupt links)? If you re-insert the audio file on the same slide, does it now play? Finally, what version of PPT are you using?

--
--

Troy Chollar
TLC Creative Services
<< Microsoft MVP, PowerPoint >>

"shelly3000" <shelly3000@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message news:E5C0A05B-9DF3-40BF-AEF6-28546F93BBCF@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

>I have PP 2002.

- > I have created a series of slides in which I have inserted my voice on
- > mpg3
- > recordings using WavePad. All worked well for 3 days. Suddenly on
- > Saturday,
- > the voice recordings are looking like they are playing, but I am getting
- > no
- > sound from these, although other types of sound clips are playing. I have
- > had a trojan virus removed by Norton Antivirus. Could that have affected
- > it?
- >
- > What is the solution?
- >
- > Thanks,
- > Shelly

.

-
- Prev by Date: **Re: How do I copy jpg files to a power point presentation?**
  - Next by Date: **Re: Convert my PPP to a DVD that can be shown on TV \(Images and music.**
  - Previous by thread: **Re: How do I copy jpg files to a power point presentation?**
  - Next by thread: **Re: Convert my PPP to a DVD that can be shown on TV \(Images and music.**
  - Index(es):

Re: mpg3 won't play

- ◆ Date
- ◆ Thread