

Re: Anyone suggest any free anti-spam tools to remove stuff from my POP3 account?

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Outlook/microsoft.public.outlook.general/2004-06/2439.html>

---

From: Compu-Pikachu (compu-pikachu_at_valint.net)

Date: 06/15/04

Date: Tue, 15 Jun 2004 06:43:49 -0700

(From Hoshi Patricia Friedman)

If you're using Outlook and Windows 98 or higher, you can use SpamBayes. It's a Bayesian filter, and I love those types of filters. However, the disadvantage is it only filters, not blocks, but it learns really fast.