

Re: item

---

Source:

http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Outlook/microsoft.public.outlook.program\_vba/2006-01/msg00095.html

---

- From: Michael Bauer <mb@xxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Tue, 10 Jan 2006 09:44:25 +0100
-

Am Mon, 09 Jan 2006 18:43:16 GMT schrieb Paula:

Example for getting the first item from the drafts:

```
dim oMail as Outlook.MailItem dim obj as object
with application.Session.GetdefaultFolder(olFolderDrafts).Items
if .count Then Set obj=.Item(1)
If TypeOf obj is Outlook.MailItem Then
' Get a copy of the draft Set oMail = obj.Copy
endif endif End with
```

—

Viele Gruesse / Best regards
Michael Bauer – MVP Outlook

```
> I send email through Word creating an outllok.object and i put as body this > routine
>
> Open txtFile For Input As #1
> Do While Not EOF(1)
> Line Input #1, cTemp
> ll = ll & cTemp & vbNewLine
> Loop
> Close #1
>
> with objItem
> .body = ll
> ...
> end with
```

Re: item

>
> There is a way to use a saved message in drafts and reading it or > copying
> it
> instead of this code?
>
> tia, Paula
>

---

• References:

◆ item

◇ From: Paula

- Prev by Date: Re: Remove invalid characters from path
- Next by Date: Re: Open Access DB from Outlook
- Previous by thread: item
- Next by thread: Re: Distributing a Macro
- Index(es):
  - ◆ Date
  - ◆ Thread