How do I get Outlook to stop showing every email ever sent on a given topic, and/or by a given sender, at the end of an email I receive? (I was forced from Outlook Express to Outlook by my iPhone, and I don't know Outlook yet.) Thanks for any help.

Ask the sender not to quote the original e-mail they received from you when they reply back. The inclusion of the original message is not under your control for e-mails that you receive. Similarly, it is YOUR choice whether or not to quote the original message in your replies.
