My recipient is a senior manager in a new target company for me. I tried to reach him by phone and was told to use email. I wanted to avoid his embarrassment if I ask him if he deleted without reading.

Don't accuse him of doing it. Pretend you think the PC did it without his permission. Just say, "A funny thing happened – I was told my message to you was deleted before you had a chance to read it. If that really happened, I'll be glad to send it again. Stupid computers!"
