

Re: Changing the OS for my PPC

---

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/PocketPC/microsoft.public.pocketpc/2005-10/msg01178.html>

---

- From: "Allan Boegild Pedersen" <abp@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Tue, 25 Oct 2005 17:23:48 +0200
-

Hi

To do this you would need to flash a english image taken from an english X50 to the device

There are atleast two issues with that, number one it is not legal according to the license agreement and number two, you would probably need to program your own backup/flashing utility to be able to do it.

i would forget about it....

—

Regards,
Allan Boegild Pedersen
www.pda-faq.com (Now 47 howto's for Micosoft Pocket PC)
www.pocketpc-faq.com

"Tom" <Tom@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> skrev i en meddelelse
news:4E15DBBB-C377-43A3-9E7E-33B0B2E1DAD4@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

> Dear all,
> I have a Dell x50 PPC. It was bough in China, and it has a chinese > version > of Windows mobile in it. I am hoping to use it for satellite navigation > with
> TOM TOM software, but Tom Tom is not compatible with Chinese Mobile > Windows.
> So I am thinking about changing to a English mobile Windows.
>
> Windows is embedded in the PPC, how can I change the windows?
>
> Cheers,
> Tom

.

---

Re: Changing the OS for my PPC

- Prev by Date: Re: Pocket PC version?
- Next by Date: Re: Simple diary
- Previous by thread: Simple diary
- Next by thread: Exchange Address Book Lookup
- Index(es):
  - ◆ Date
  - ◆ Thread