

Re: SMS upgrade Side-By-Side 2.0 to 2003

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/SMS/microsoft.public.sms.setup/2005-11/msg00155.html>

- From: "Kim Oppalfens" <Kim dot Oppalfens@google mail.com>
 - Date: Mon, 21 Nov 2005 08:52:50 +0100
-

I agree largely for collections.

Being able to migrate queries and packages can prove to be valuable though. I still don't have a package import script because most of the time you don't want to reimport all packages but just a portion of it, which makes it tougher to script.

--

Kim Oppalfens
Telindus Belgium

MVP Windows Server System – SMS

"Lars Norman Søndergaard" <lns@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message
news:%23mRT01B7FHA.2628@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

> Hi Kim,

>

> I normally find that it is a very good opportunity to clean up SMS so I am > very inclined to do it manually and rethink how collections etc are build.

>

> Thanks

> Lars Norman Søndergaard

>

> "Kim Oppalfens" <Kim dot Oppalfens@google mail.com> skrev i en meddelelse > news:O4hKy926FHA.1028@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

>> Has anyone had any luck in using this transfer wizard?

>>

>> I have created, and posted a script to export/import queries.

>> You can export/import collections using the sms admin console.

>> I have another script to export packages to pdf files, you still need to >> import them manually.

>>

>> I don't have anything for advertisements.

>>

>> --

>> Kim Oppalfens

>> Telindus Belgium

>> MVP Windows Server System – SMS

>> "Steve Thompson" <stevethompson@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message

>> news:eH4VoxT6FHA.1020@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

>>> "Hugo" <Hugo@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message

Re: SMS upgrade Side-By-Side 2.0 to 2003

>>> news:57F86A5D-7B56-4102-B022-076DE387ECE6@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

>>>> thanks for the help.

>>>> I install sms 2003,maintain the 2.0 to install the adv clients,but can >>>> i >>>> migrate the queries,collection and t