

Re: Connecting to a MSDE server in Internet

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/SQL-Server/microsoft.public.sqlserver.connect/2005-09/msg00144.html>

- From: "Josep" <hola@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Fri, 30 Sep 2005 12:28:19 +0200
-

Well, it seems I didn't unblock the port successfully. So, my work is to find how this router works... where else I've to configure the ports... but I like to know that's not an SQL Server problem :-)

Thank you Tony for explaining me this very fast way, and easy, to know if a port is blocked or not :D

Josep.

"Tony Sebion" <tony@xxxxxxxxxxx> escribió en el mensaje news:3q2bkiFcpoaaU1@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

- > You can check to see if it's a firewall or port blocking issue or not by
- > using TELNET and seeing if it can connect. Type this from a command
- > prompt (replace INET_SERVER with your server name).
- >
- > telnet INET_SERVER 1433
- >
- > If the telnet session fails to connect, you have a firewall issue or are
- > not using the correct port or host name – when I try to connect to
- > something that is blocked by a firewall, the error reported for me was
- > "could not open connection to the host on port xxxx: Connect failed".
- >
- > If you get a screen that appears to be the start of the connected session,
- > you can be sure you have actually opened a port to another machine. You
- > won't be able to do anything meaningful from this telnet session, but it
- > rules out firewall, port, or hostname issues. Close it and use the same
- > settings to connect with Query Analyzer or Enterprise Manager.
- >
- > Good luck,
- > Tony Sebion
- >
- > "Josep" <hola@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message
- > news:#1fFeIMxFHA.700@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx:
- >
- >> Hi !!
- >>

Re: Connecting to a MSDE server in Internet

>> I would like to connect to a SQL Server (MSDE edition) that's in >> Internet,
>> using Enterprise Manager either Query Analyzer. For these I've configured >> the client tool as:
>>
>> Server Alias: INET_SERVER
>> Net: TCP/IP
>> Connection parameters:
>> Server name: [DNS_NAME]\<[REMOTE_SERVER_NAME]\<[INSTANCE_NAME]
>> Port number: 1433
>>
>> Although I've tried to configure the server name in different ways, I >> haven't found the successful way to do it.
>> I don't think it's a firewall problem. In theory I've successfull >> disabled.
>>
>>
>> Thanks !!
>>
>> Josep.
>

• References:

- ◆ Connecting to a MSDE server in Internet
 ◇ From: Josep
- ◆ Re: Connecting to a MSDE server in Internet
 ◇ From: Tony Sebion

- Prev by Date: Re: Determining Fully Qualified Name for Linked Servers
- Next by Date: Re: SQL Server does not exist or access denied.
- Previous by thread: Re: Connecting to a MSDE server in Internet
- Next by thread: Please help i can't connect....
- Index(es):
 - ◆ Date
 - ◆ Thread