

Re: Explorer

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Scripting/microsoft.public.scripting.virus.discussion/2004-04/0331.html>

---

From: Trafton (traftonofjj2SPAM\_at\_yahoo.com)

Date: 04/22/04

Date: Thu, 22 Apr 2004 14:52:47 -0700

Hi Janice,

David is right in that this probably isn't a virus, but rather a standard crash. To diagnose the problem, it would help to know the frequency of when this happens, whether it typically happens under certain circumstances, and also information about your system such as the operating system.

However, again, I don't think this is a virus.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Johnstone-Anderson

Microsoft MVP – Windows Security

Remove "SPAM" from email address to reply!

Security Manifest: www.msmvps.com/trafton/

"Janice" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:287901c42822$86132fe0$a501280a@phx.gbl...

>I have message's comeing up all the time telling me I have > an explorer error, what can be done this is a microsoft > error.