

microsoft.public.scripting.wsh: Script to delete registry key having sub keys.

Script to delete registry key having sub keys.

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Scripting/microsoft.public.scripting.wsh/2004-06/0335.html>

From: SachiN (SachiN_at_discussions.microsoft.com)

Date: 06/17/04

Date: Thu, 17 Jun 2004 05:18:01 -0700

Hi Gurus,

Is there some method that allows me to delete the registry keys which has sub keys, using vbscript/WMI.

Currently I am using the DeleteKey method, but it will delete the key only if it has no sub keys.

I think only workaround is to enumerate all keys and use DeleteKey for each.

Thanks,

Sachin