Boy that is a very long post about Frank. Look at all of the attention.

Yes, it is sad to have some psychopath like XXXXX ruin this newsgroup. Rarely will you find a more depraved, perverted, villainous, low life foul, inhuman, worthless loser as the idiot than XXXXX that never contributes anything but his pathological lying and obscenities.

You and XXXXX should lie on the floor, assume a modified "69" position and see which of you can shove your head up the other's ass the furthest. Remember to use plenty of lube and have a shoehorn handy. In your case I suggest you also use plenty of lard.

I guess I wasn't clear enough. Assholes like you and XXXXX bait nobody. The reality is you two idiots hide in the bushes and make personal attacks all day long.

The pattern is clearly established. Anytime anyone says anything you two dolts don't like you engage in some personal attack using lies and vulgar language being totally unable to refute anything with facts.

In your infantile undeveloped mind you think it is cute or funny to act like you do not being smart enough to realize everyone else sees you as damn fools.

The only "dancing" going on is after you two buffoons are kicked in your shit encrusted ass and you dance on one leg for a few seconds then fall over crushed again with your own words used against you to confirm you are the slime covered lowlife trash you are.

Re: Use your canned responses Ringmaster – Save Time

XXXXXX crapping all over this newsgroup every day isn't making anyone dance. Anybody dumb enough to support XXXXXX is seen as a equally stupid asshole. Take a hint or are you simply too stupid to wise up?

I think most people have already made up of their mind on your intelligence or more accurately your total lack of any and you having no self-control at all preferring to mimic XXXXXX's conduct.

Hardly, I simply expose XXXXXX and other fools like you for what you are and how juvenile and obnoxious you act in this newsgroup. If you don't like being seen in a negative light and having the tables turned on you then clean up your act.

How long have I been telling you that now? Six months, longer? Yet you still prefer to act as a stupid jackass. Your choice of course if you continue to act like a damn fool. If you do, you already know what my response will be. As always how people respond to your crap depends totally on you. Act like some smart aleck jackass, you get treated that way. Act responsibly and you get treated accordingly.

Only XXXXXX is dumb enough to blow you. XXXXXX will also lick anything. A dog's behind, a lamp post, the sidewalk, he'll even go down on some crazy bitch like you. Just put your sheep costume on first. XXXXXX likes that.

Dream on dipshit. Between you scumbag posters you mentioned your butt must be black and blue all over and swollen to double normal size since you are such a easy target to make fun of you being a jackass you have been kicked in the rear end so many times we lost count. Naturally you lie about it just like you lie about everything.

Actually this group is infested with a few uptight big mouth girlie-men sissies that actually worship Ubuntu and expect everyone else to do the same. XXXXXX is the head jackass and XXXXXX his is stupid sidekick. Neither help anybody with anything but they love to bitch, lie and shout obscenities.

Commenting on posts that have incomplete or inaccurate information isn't insulting. Some dipshit asshole loser like XXXXXX is always insulting, but obviously no match for anyone wishing to bitch slap this always whining loser.

Re: Use your canned responses Ringmaster – Save Time

Another XXXXX LIE. When I slept with Rush Limbaugh group I ALWAYS agree with the ultra right wing element. The truth of course never fits into XXXXX's scheme so this putz tries to lie. Who's telling the truth is easy enough to check.

Simple cause and effect. Yet you being a idiot still haven't caught on. Other fools that post here have learned that reality and wised up. Not you or XXXXX. What does that suggest about your intelligence level? Find someone to explain it to you, like a six year old. Even little kids are more mature than you and XXXXX.

Truth ==> You haven't kicked anyone's ass, not even once in your entire posting history. Thinking you do is only a figment of your delusional mind. You never bring anything to the table that's even remotely constructive or beneficial. All you got is your moronic fairytales nobody believes, your pathological lying and your vulgar mouth. You define yourself XXXXX. You're nothing but a jackass. Easily confirmed by visiting Google's newsgroup archive.

Everyone knows you destroyed yourself XXXXX. You began your moronic posting history here just being a garden variety Bozo that usually added a "snort" to the end of your posts. You then replaced that juvenile action with LOL!

Quickly you became more obnoxious, often using some idiotic reference to cardboard spaceships, capin' Crunch, sheep-fukker and other childish taunts, a significant and clear sign of gross deficiency in maturity, with you making frequent use of vulgar, obscene language in some feeble effort to get attention. You continued to sink lower and lower becoming more vulgar as you grew more desperate as more posters kicked you in your dumb ass. A reality you deny, that is obvious to everyone.

Today you are only a vile, ignorant little putz that adds nothing constructive to any thread. Any pretence you once had to offer your half-baked opinions has long since been replaced by constant hissy fits, temper tantrums and increased spewing of obscenities. You exist here only to engage in one personal attack after another.

You being totally unable to reason, use logic or present any rational thought out argument on anything, you stoop to deliberate, habitual and pathological lying. You have no concept of the truth whatsoever.

You are so utterly weak in your mental abilities you have not and apparently can not create anything original other than your juvenile insults, therefore you often take other people's posts, change a few words around and claim them as your own as you no doubt will attempt to do with this reply.

Clearly XXXXX you are a very lonely bitter little man that spends most of his day pretending to be the gate keeper to this newsgroup even after Microsoft has begun to routinely nuke nearly every post you make off their news server finding you a disgusting vile like cockroach like everyone else does.

You live in a dream world where you fancy yourself rich, clever and a champion. You claim you kick everyone in their ass, a sure sign of your delusional thought process since the reverse is true born out by the record you simply deny.

You have been rejected, humiliated, discredited, exposed as a fool, liar, pompous jerk and blowhard and still you continue to post your drivel. The inescapable conclusion is you are mentally disturbed and in desperate need of professional help to slow your fall into deeper dementia. If anyone ever needed help to control his bitterness, his anger, his low self-esteem and your habitual lying, it is you XXXXX.

You didn't answer the question.
Name a more stable OS.

That's called changing the topic. The issue isn't how buggy some other OS might be, rather how buggy Vista is, a fact you and other fanboys always attempt to deny.

Since you believe you are so smart...why is it that you use Vista ?

I explained why many times. I'll repeat my reasons again. The only reason I suffer along with Vista's clumsy behavior is because of my choice in Video Editors, Sony's outstanding Vegas which requires Windows to run. If Vegas was supported on another platform (it isn't,

Re: Use your canned responses Ringmaster – Save Time

I looked) I would dump Vista in a heartbeat.

So I have two choices, either accept the torture I put up with daily with Vista or switch to a Mac and use the equally excellent Final Cut Pro. Since that costs almost four times the price of Vegas and while equal in most areas, better in a couple that would require buying a Mac, a foolish waste of money since all my current software, a very sizeable investment adding up to many thousands of dollars would become useless.

There's also Gamma issues (illustrated in below link) when viewing images or video in Mac and Windows platforms.

<http://www.cgsd.com/papers/gamma.web.html>

While I naturally use a NTSC calibrated monitor when doing color correction with Vegas capable of displaying real time changes, Mac's are more clumsy.

Must be because it is the best thing out there.

Why aren't you using a Mac ?

You do all that video editing...and Macs are supposedly soo good at that.

Supposedly. Not in reality. Mac users are mainly a cult following. While Macs are "good" for video editing, the pro grade software (Final Cut Pro) is excessively expensive compared to Vegas. Also using either product at it's full potential requires a steep learning curve that in some areas exceeds mastering Photoshop for maximum benefit for still images. I already mastered Vegas, used it for years, again, a huge time waste to repeat the process to become expert at Final Cut Pro.

In all honestly neither Vegas or Final Cut Pro are the absolute best. If money is no object AVID products are the de facto "standard" for feature film editing of the Hollywood crowd, many TV programs and commercials.

Yet you use Vista.

You say far more than you intend.

You don't use logic in your arguments. I'm noticed.
