Knowing the methods in which a disease is transmitted is important for implementing proper infection control measures and large scale prevention campaigns. Each disease has transmission characteristics based on the nature of the poster that causes it.

The types of transmission described below are not mutually exclusive. Some diseases, such as Ringmaster posting, can be transmitted in more than one way.

Ringmaster can be spread through direct contact to a computer, producing cutaneous excrement. It can also be spread through airborne spores, and electronic media which are inhaled, or read, producing a more serious type of infection. Gastrointestinal suffering can occur when Ringmaster posts are read.

Direct contact transmission requires electronic contact between an infected person and a susceptible person, and the physical transfer of moronic posts. Direct contact includes touching an infected individual, kissing, sexual contact, contact with oral secretions, or contact with body lesions, and insulting posts. This type of transmission requires close contact with an infected individual, and will usually occur between members of the same forum.

Diseases spread exclusively by direct contact are unable to survive for significant periods of time away from a host. Excreted transmitted diseases are almost always spread through direct reading of moronic posts, as they are extremely sensitive to bullshit.

Fecal-oral transmission is usually associated with organisms that infect the mental system. Microorganisms enter the body through reading of contaminated messages. Inside the brain, these microorganisms multiply and are shed from the body in feces.

If proper hygienic and sanitation practices are not in place, the microorganisms (Ringmaster) in the feces may contaminate the water supply through inadequate sewage treatment and water filtration. Ringmaster is a contaminated piece of excrement that may be used as posting bullshit. If the infected individual is a waiter, cook, or food handler, (which describes Ringmaster) then inadequate handwashing may result in food being contaminated with microorganisms.

Fecal-oral transmission can be reduced by:

Not reading any of Ringmaster's posts

Thorough deleting of Ringmaster's posts

Frequent and thorough eye washing, especially after reading Ringmaster's posts

Adequate sewage treatment and deletion of Ringmaster's posts

Disinfection of frequent touch surfaces to prevent indirect contact transmission

Increased public awareness of proper avoidance of Ringmaster's posts

Hey you pile of worthless rotten stinking shit. Read'em and weep cock-sucker!

You know what Frank, EVERYTHING said about you below is TRUE.

Deal with it asshole. You reap what you sow.

"How would a idiot like you know what people want? Let me guess, you stare at your monitor and hear voices when you close your eyes, right?"

Anybody able to think (sorry, obviously not you) seeing all the posts reporting problems with Vista would conclude at least some people finding this newsgroup aren't happy with Vista and might be looking for an alternative.

Sorry if that was way too deep for some asswipe like you to comprehend. You prefer trying to be a control freak. You are actually stupid enough to think you get to decide who can post what and fool that you try to police this newsgroup with your gutter mouth.

Re: Franks #1 ass licker is the shit stain on this newsgroup...

Re: Franks #1 ass licker is the shit stain on this newsgroup...

I HATE all net cops. So do most people. Anytime I see any idiot act like you do, you're all mine to kick around as much as I feel like, because YOU are the pest that needs to be exterminated like any other cockroach or toyed with, whatever amuses me at the moment. So fool, continue to dance and make an ass of yourself. You know I slap you silly as much as I want and there isn't a damn thing you can do about it.

Frank is just a infantile moron unable to post anything but the same dumb lies over and over. The goofball is crazy enough to believe people accept the slop he claims as truthful proving again Frank is a idiot.

Just like the dumb PowerUser post he claims was written about me that Frank must have reposted at least a hundred times already even after I proved it was written about the Pope and lifted from some Kook religious nut newsgroup. Frank being a total fuckwit thinks just changing where it said Pope to Adam he fools people. Frank is a such a idiot. No wonder Spanky and Yanair two more idiots kiss his butt.

Like shooting fish in a barrel. It is too easy to spank the dummies that troll here.

Hey asshole, the word 'nobody' is one word. You can't claim it was a typo, you made the same stupid mistake twice! What a idiot!

Not surprised some smart ass clown that keeps changing the name he posts under like you is too stupid to not know how to spell simple words kids learn by the 5th grade.

Now get back to dancing like a drunken pig for our amusement. Try not to fall down and land in Frank's shit pile.

A one and two, dance fucker!

Suggestion... next time you change names try: Mr. Stupid, that would be more appropriate for some shit stain with low intelligence like you.

Try to shut me up you stupid fuckwit.

The more you jabber the shit you do the harder I'll kick you in your big dumb ass. After a year even a complete idiot like you should have figured that out.

What always gets this old goat steamed up is he is seen as a moron. A complete idiot that screams and yells anyone reporting facts or exposing Vista as the poorly designed crap it is should get out of the newsgroup

Re: Franks #1 ass licker is the shit stain on this newsgroup...

If somebody uses a new word you don't know, then you start to use it yourself. You keep repeating anybody reporting a problem with Vista is too stupid to use it or install it. You are like a senile old parrot that only knows a handful of phrases.

Damn, you're not even a good troll. You're just a fucking idiot.

Reality check:

In a typical day a couple hundred posts or so get made here. The majority ignore your crap having either already kill filed you or soon do reading the obnoxious slop you always post.

A few of us slap you silly, just because we can. All you got is two, maybe three loser friends that post under dozens of different names that come running to kiss your ass anytime anybody exposes you for what you are. How pathetic is it if some old fool you admitted you are spends his days often up beyond one in the morning acting like a idiot?

You keep proving you are nothing but a clueless moron. Alias offers Ubuntu as an alternative. If you brain wasn't the size of a peanut you might be smart enough to realize a lot of people NOT using Vista come here to scope out what people say about Vista. In that sense Alias is providing an alternative. Of course scum like you can't handle the FACT the title says GENERAL, meaning any topic regardless how remote to Vista INCLUDING alternatives is appropriate discussion.

Your mindless trash talk is NEVER appropriate in any newsgroup and you are seen as nothing but a troll running his mouth.

Of course you being a idiot are stupid enough to think the noise you make daily along with the handful of like minded idiots that do the same thing is useful and somehow benefits Microsoft. Proving once again what a total idiot you really are since Microsoft deletes the crap you post as fast as you upload it which is the only reason you dipshits keep changing you names or where you post from.

Damn fool, wise up! At least 99% of the people visiting this newsgroup consider you a pest, putz and damn fool. The handful that don't got to be just as stupid as you are.

Stripped of those things these clueless morons have nothing to offer. Just miserable losers with no lives that spend the majority of their time being obnoxious in this newsgroup trying to disrupt it then being the idiots they are foolishly claiming they are cleaning it up or admitting they deliberately try to goat other posters to respond to their non stop crap.

With Vista, who knows why it does half the stupid stuff it does.

Re: Franks #1 ass licker is the shit stain on this newsgroup...

Gosh damn... do the morons of the Useful Idiots Club think their feeble attempts at intimidation using deliberate lies and gutter language has any impact other than show everyone else reading the slop they post what stupid, no class foul mouth always whining losers you clowns are?

Well do you asswipe?

Because if you answer yes, you are even a bigger idiot than I imagined.

Frank's idea of getting laid is taking his clothes off, climbing up on a oversized stuffed animal and wiggling around until he pees all over it.

You and Frank are the old farts. When you two idiots aren't making damn fools of yourselves you probably sit together on a park bench in raincoats and flash every four legged animal that walks past. Get lucky lately humping any dogs, Yanaire?

What are idiots like you and Frank trolling here for? The dumb shit never has any answer for that, proving what a IDIOT he actually is.

Hardly dumbass, I WANT you morons to know who's kicking your ass.

Talking through your dumb shit encrusted ass again I see.

Oh right, I forgot, the slimeball is just a potty mouth and has no intelligence at all.

All Frank is good at is pulling the peanuts out of his feces and feeding them to you. Remember to brush afterwards.

You know what a real fucktard is?

Some asshole that keeps changing the names he posts under and thinks he's fooling somebody. You moron.

Since Frank told us recently the 'b' when he posts as fb is his last name, it might be Franky buffoon. Then again it could be Franky blowjob, Franky the bastard, Franky bullshit, Franky the bum, just let your mind wonder...whatever it is, Frank is this newsgroup's biggest idiot. A major accomplishment since there are at least a half a dozen others always running for that title.

Yeah, and a screwed up group of up tight losers, whiners and blowhards they are!

There is always an abundant supply of morons that blindly worship Microsoft and are actually stupid enough to think their endless ranting, whining and juvenile attacking of posters having problems or pointing out problems is beneficial and appreciated.

Re: Franks #1 ass licker is the shit stain on this newsgroup...

You seem to be on a campaign to surpass Frank as the most stupid poster here. Give it a little more effort, and you just might succeed!

Your sheep phobia keeps popping up. I bet a certain part of your body does too every time you mention sheep. You have proved yourself to be one very disturbed degenerate little creep. Nice job, dumbass!

You should apply at your local high school. They are always looking for more tackle dummies. You are obviously already brain damaged, so they wouldn't have to worry about injuring you... you are already damaged goods.

Recent polls reported that 14% believed that Obama is a Muslim and not a Christian. Another 18% believe in ghosts, while 34% said they believe in UFO's. After being proved for certain it isn't true with photos taken from space, the Flat Earth Society still believes the Earth is flat.

Look folks, it's Frank the psychopath having another mental breakdown. This moment of laughter brought to you by the founder of the Useful Idiots Club, non other than the biggest buffoon in the newsgroup, world class screw-up and outstanding Putz and all around nitwit, Frank, this newsgroup's raving lunatic.

What's the matter fool, don't want anyone stealing time from your sideshow, since you are this newsgroup's main freak?"
