I uninstalled outlook and It did the same crap to me. Now I have to reinstall MS junk. Just to answer an ad on craigslist. They are doing this crap just to try to force us to use their BS email.

You know, this happened to a cousin of mine. What I told him was not to take the same crap. Wipe your system clean and use Ubuntu. That should be on par with your mental abilities. Ask our resident idiot Alias to help you\

So Ubuntu can not be too bad as even you are starting to advise people to use it.

Even one of the three stooges, non other that the moron Bill Yanaire is on record saying Ubuntu is a good OS, yet the little rat lies his shit covered ass off daily. Google doesn't lie. The fool was caught with his pants down around his ankles and anyone willing to invest the time can find him praising Ununtu and cursing Vista in the same post. Maybe I should dig it out again just to rub his none in it. ;-)
