Does any have the HOTFIX which patches KB918899 IE6 crashing problem..
Microsoft seems to want us to pay for support for a problem which their cumulative update to IE causes.

<http://support.microsoft.com/kb/923762/en-us> this page describes a hotfix as available but then directs us to the paid support page in order to obtain the patch to the patch.

can anyone help.

thanks
