

RE: Language Packs

---

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.basics/2005-07/msg01477.html>

---

- From: "Jon Harvey" <jon1992@xxxxxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Tue, 19 Jul 2005 17:09:03 -0700
-

The language packs are basically fonts that help you view the homepage as the homepage designer intended. Sometimes the fonts (language packs) already installed in the computer you are using are not enough and the download will not harm your computer or the other programs running.

Hope it helps,
Jon
—
MCP
Honolulu, Hawaii

"Dennis Marks" wrote:

- > While viewing a web page I was told by the system that to view all of the
- > content correctly I must install the Japanese language pack. It then gave
- > the options to quit or install. I have a couple of questions. Are the
- > language packs already on the computer ready to be installed? What is the
- > disadvantage of installing language packs?
- >
- >
- >
- .

-
- Prev by Date: ***Re: Icons disappearing***
  - Next by Date: ***Re: disk cleanup***
  - Previous by thread: ***disk cleanup***
  - Next by thread: ***RE: language/IME issues***
  - Index(es):
    - ◆ ***Date***
    - ◆ ***Thread***