

Re: Icons for extensions

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.customize/2005-09/msg00242.html>

- From: "Wesley Vogel" <123WVogel955@xxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Mon, 12 Sep 2005 16:44:54 -0600
-

Does Word or Wordpad open when you double click a .doc file?

If WordPad, Right click a a .doc file | Properties |
General tab | Opens with: if not Microsoft Word |
Click the Change button and select Word

Hope this helps. Let us know.

Wes

MS-MVP Windows Shell/User

In news:CA4AD5E1-7F1D-425F-BF5B-E2E67CAA4B77@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx,

Thorpe <thorpe89@xxxxxxx> hunted and pecked:

- > How do I change an icon for a specific file type extension? It's just that
- > .doc (which are supposed to be Microsoft Word icons) have icons like the
- > WordPad icon. It used to have Word icons for .doc but not anymore. Is
- > there a way I can change this in Windows or Word?
- >
- >
- > ---
- > â€¢ Thorpe â€¢

.

• References:

◆ Icons for extensions

◇ From: Thorpe

- Prev by Date: Re: Hide Shutdown command on Welcome Screen
- Next by Date: Re: XP related question – file association
- Previous by thread: Icons for extensions
- Index(es):
 - ◆ Date
 - ◆ Thread