

Re: System shutdown message/system reboots

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.general/2004-03/6149.html>

---

From: Joe Roberts (j.roberts37_at_sbcglobal.net)

Date: 03/07/04

Date: Sun, 07 Mar 2004 02:57:50 GMT

Go to Google and do a find using

"This shutdown was initiated by NT AUTHORITY\SYSTEM. Windows must now restart because the Remote Procedure Call (RPC) service terminated unexpectedly."

and that should lead you to a site which will answer the problem.

--

Joe

=====

ALL INCOMING AND OUTGOING MESSAGES ARE SCANNED BY NORTON ANTIVIRUS 2002

=====

"Tom" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:581d01c403ee$6bc83840$a601280a@
> I just reformated my friends PC who is running Win XP > Home Edition. I am now receiving the following error > message and then the computer reboots itself. This > typically happens 10-15 min once the system reboots. Here > is the message... "This system is shutting down. Please > save all work in progress and log off. Any unsaved > charges will be lost. This shutdown was initiated by NT > AUTHORITY\SYSTEM. Windows must now restart because the > Remote Procedure Call (RPC) service terminated > unexpectedly."
>
> Any help would be greatly appreciated.
>
> Thank you!