

Re: No incoming attachments

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.general/2004-05/22129.html>

---

From: Malvern (thisis_at_fak)

Date: 05/22/04

Date: 22 May 2004 20:03:22 GMT

"peggy livigni" <falpal@sbcglobal.net> wrote in message
news:10a2701c44031$e9163b60$a601280a@phx.gbl...
> My computer (hp) is 5 weeks old. I have never received > any incoming attachments on my E-mail. Since my husband > is out of work, it is vital to receive attachments.
> Could you please help us? All of the attachments have a > message "OE removed access to the following unsafe > attachments in your mail".
>
> Thanking you in advance, Peggy

To change, go to Tools>Options>Security tab and. unmark "Do not allow attachments to be saved or opened which could potentially contain a virus" with a mouse click on the checkmark. Just remember to know what you are opening and from who to avoid viruses, or much better, have an antivirus program installed and configured for "auto-protect" to scan incoming e-mails. My Norton A-V has nailed several.

Malv