

Re: Problem with opening a folder

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.general/2004-06/21568.html>

From: Patti MacLeod (pam120_at_nospamshaw.ca)

Date: 06/21/04

Date: Mon, 21 Jun 2004 12:25:39 -0400

Hi Martin,

You could follow the instructions in the Resolution section of this MSKB article:

<http://support.microsoft.com/default.aspx?scid=321186>

or

D/load and run Doug Knox's foler_open.vbs:

http://dougknox.com/xp/scripts_desc/xp_folder_open.htm

Regards,

--

Patti MacLeod

Microsoft MVP - Windows Shell/User

"Martin" <Martin@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:558EBAB6-D1F4-47F2-A8DE-DD0B212D3CBF@microsoft.com...

> Hi all,

>

> This problem happened suddenly.

>

> When I double click on a folder, instead of opening the file folder, it opens a Windows search application instead.

> When I right click on a folder, instead of having the word "Open" bolded, it have "Search" bolded.

>

> Please let me know how I can change the option so whenever I double-click on a folder, it opens the actual folder not running the search engine?

>

> Thanks in advance!