Hi John,

Common issue that only offers workarounds as of now.

Run the edit on line 157

If that doesn't help:

Right Click – HourGlass – has to do with Update 817287 and/or 821557

Right Click Crash

If this is not the case try these suggestions:

Right click a blank area on the Desktop/Properties/Appearance /Effects. In the Effects dialog box, click to clear the: "Use the following Transition effect for menus and tooltips check box, and ok your way out. And/or: Click the folder or file that you want (select it) before you right-click it to display the shortcut menu.

All the Best,

Kelly
