

microsoft.public.windowsxp.general: Re: How to Remove entries from the Start Up Menu eg.

Re: How to Remove entries from the Start Up Menu eg.

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.general/2005-01/11435.html>

From: Kelly (kelly_at_mvps.org)

Date: 01/14/05

Date: Fri, 14 Jan 2005 04:15:32 -0600

In the Start Menu, where?

Disable/Remove Windows Messenger

http://www.dougknox.com/xp/utills/xp_mess_disable.htm

Disable Messenger from Outlook Express (Row 59)

http://www.kellys-korner-xp.com/xp_tweaks.htm

Disable Messenger from Outlook (Line 193)

http://www.kellys-korner-xp.com/xp_tweaks.htm

--

All the Best,
Kelly (MS-MVP)

Troubleshooting Windows XP

<http://www.kellys-korner-xp.com>

"Sash" <sash@noreply.com> wrote in message
news:cs85bi$9ka$1@news6.svr.pol.co.uk...

>I want to get rid of Windows Messenger Icon and MSN Icon that is >automatically placed in the Start Menu.

>

> As I do not have any intention of using these is it possible to > uninstall them from windows, I have not dared to try this as I know they > are part of the Windows Installation.

>

> Thanks

>