

Re: Downloading .wmv files

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.general/2005-04/msg04605.html>

- From: frantheman76 <frantheman76@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Wed, 6 Apr 2005 23:09:02 -0700
-

Can anyone help me with this? Thanks for your help in advance.

"frantheman76" wrote:

> Basically I got a trojan which locked me out of XP. I had to install the > master cd I got with the pc which wiped what was on the hard drive and > reinstalled everything so the hard drive was exactly the same as when I first > purchased the pc.
>
> It just confused me because the same files played fine before but now it > says that media player cannot play them, unless I download them through my > p2p software.
>
> I hope this helps. Thanks for your assistance so far.
>
> "Jerry" wrote:
>
>> Reboot means you simply restarted your computer with the same >> configuration/software. Your comment implies you reformatted and reinstalled >> all your software – is that what you did? And how did you do it?
>>
>> "frantheman76" <frantheman76@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message
>> news:ADDA8357-8487-42F0-901A-E1D26BF7C6B1@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx
>>> I recently had to reboot my computer, and have loaded all the software on >>> there I had previously. However since then, if I try and download certain
>>> .wmv files with Internet Explorer, they will not play on Media Player 10.
>>> These files worked absolutely fine before the reboot. I tried downloading >>> the >>> same files with a p2p program and they work with no problems with Media >>> Player. Is there something I can do to reconfigure the way explorer >>> downloads
>>> things, as I really want to be able to do things as I did before.
>>
>>
>>
.

- References:

- ◆ Downloading .wmv files
 - ◇ From: frantheman76
- ◆ Re: Downloading .wmv files
 - ◇ From: Jerry
- ◆ Re: Downloading .wmv files
 - ◇ From: frantheman76

- Prev by Date: RE: cd issue
- Next by Date: Re: cd issue
- Previous by thread: Re: Downloading .wmv files
- Next by thread: "Windows Search" long delay in opening as well as PC
- Index(es):
 - ◆ Date
 - ◆ Thread