

RE: Adware

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.general/2005-09/msg00259.html>

- From: Dee <Dee@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Wed, 31 Aug 2005 16:17:02 -0700
-

I can not norton anti-virus in the startup information. Would you happened to know what it would be named?

Dee

"Byte" wrote:

- > They are not "locked" but are in use by apps activated during startup.
- > Clean your startup and then you can delete them.
- > Click Start>Run>type MSCONFIG and click OK
- > Click the Startup tab and uncheck/disable everything except your anti-virus
- > Click Apply and Close. Reboot. Now clean up your system here:
- > Open IE (Internet Explorer)>Tools>Internet Options>Delete Cookies and
- > Delete Temporary Files including offline files. While there also click the
- > History button and clean that.
- > --
- > XP-WNP
- > Today is the first day of the
- > rest of your life.
- >
- >
- > "Dee" wrote:
- >
- >> What is the best software to get rid of adware and/or viruses. I have done
- >> everything, I have norton and spy ware, but it seems all temp files are
- >> locked and I can not get rid of the. This happened going to a site to sell a
- >> motorcycle and this si slowing my system down.
- >>
- >> Thanks
- >> Dee

-
- Follow-Ups:
 - ◆ Re: Adware
 - ◇ From: MoserRJ

RE: Adware

- References:

- ◆ Adware

- ◇ From: Dee

- ◆ RE: Adware

- ◇ From: Byte

- Prev by Date: Re: Drive Imaging

- Next by Date: what is the minimum partition size for optimal performance?

- Previous by thread: RE: Adware

- Next by thread: Re: Adware

- Index(es):

- ◆ Date

- ◆ Thread