last question,,,

is booting into safemode
an improvement over the normal boot?

Last question: in bestbuy.com, all notebooks proposed have 5400 rpm at most.
None has 7200 rpm, that's not a problem?

Yes that one will be faster. As to jumping in now 1) Determine what version of Vista you will be eligible for. and 2) Office 2007 is "due
out" early in 2007.

Thanks for the good info.
I'm thinking of buying now a new laptop because I'm loosing time now. I went to Best Buy and I found one at
