Howya, could someone please tell me if a Hewlett-packard Apollo p-2100u printer is compatible with a laptop Microsoft Windows XP Home Edition. If not, is there an adaptor I can get to suit?

I would appreciate if anyone is going to answer this, to keep the reply as non-technical as possible as this whole internet thingy is extremely new to me. I haven't fully mastered the remote on the tv yet, so please, keep it simple.

Cheers

Mono.
