| Snails, Frogs, etc. Second only to Barbecued Dog.

Don't knock it till you've tried it.

I want to know how the frogs started eating all that shit though, I can see how people may eat odd things in times of crisis. Witchety grubs and stick insects for example don't look very appetising, neither do some mushrooms. But the frogs have no excuse for eating snails and frog legs. Unless of course it was during one of their 1000s of surrenders and they were too scared to go get some proper food so ate what ever edged by, and somehow liked it.
