You can go out and purchase a "Full Version" of Windows XP Pro and perform a "repair install". Microsoft never released a "Corporate Version" of Windows XP.

How to Perform a Windows XP Repair Install

| We have a Compaq Presario, originally loaded with ME.
| I formatted the drive.
| I installed XP Corporate version of XP Pro.
|
| Internet explorer DIES every time we try to click a link.
|
| I downloaded the latest IE install (6.1) on another machine, copied it
| over, ran it from said machine.
|
| No change.
|
| Advice, please. The computer in question is a Compaq Presario 1 GHZ
| Athalon.
|
| Netscape works just fine, btw.
